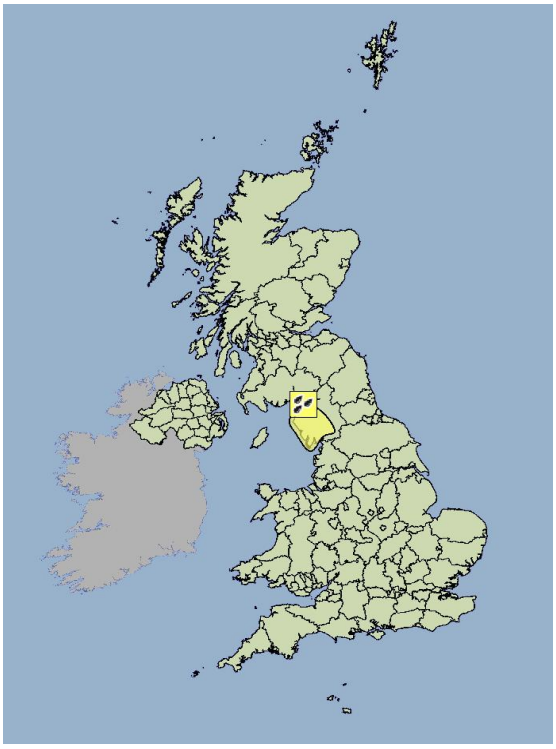
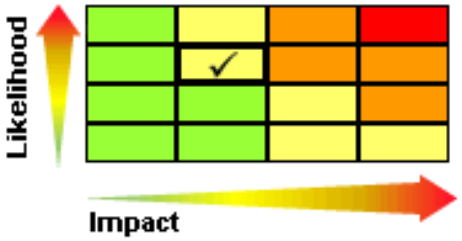
National Severe Weather Warning Service





Chief Forecasters Assessment
A band of rain is expected across Northern England through Friday. Rain is expected to be heavy and persistent at times, especially across Cumbria. Through the course of the day rainfall totals of 30-50 mm are expected quite widely with as much as 70-80 mm over exposed hills. Whilst these totals are not unusual for the time of year after recent heavy rain these totals may lead to some impacts.

The Met Office have issued a Yellow Warning of Rain

Valid from 03:00 on Fri, 13th Oct 2017 until 19:00 on Fri, 13th Oct 2017

Heavy and at times persistent rain is expected during Friday.

Bus and train services will probably be affected with journey times taking longer. Spray and flooding on roads is also probable making journey times longer. Flooding of a few homes and business is possible.
